"I - Is this true?" Vader rasps, still knelt down before the Emperor.

"Twin children, both strong in the force." Palpatine notes. "You have sensed both. They are loyal to the Rebellion throughout. But the dark side has the power to seduce them."

"Not him." Vader says, perhaps a bit too quickly. "With time, perhaps, but it is the princess who has the anger that will lead her to our side."

"She is not a princess." Palpatine says. "And you are right. I have heard her in the Senate, and she is far too angry for the Jedi."

"The problem will not be convincing her of the Dark Side." Vader notes. "It will be convincing her of the Empire."

"I leave the problem to you, Lord Vader." Palpatine says, turning away. "I trust that by the end of this matter, your children will have joined my cause."
